

White Eagle School of Martial Arts

Code of the Eagle

I am what I am because I choose to be,
I am an eagle by choice so I am subject to its laws

My brothers and my sisters are my heart and my mind, and even though we may disagree with each other,
we still strive to be one.

For I know I must go forth to seek the Tao and the Void-forgetting all category, and letting energy that wishes to exist,
... exist.
